

Privacy Policy

COPSE CIC is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. We endeavour to tell you what information about you we have collected, why we have collected it and what we will do with it. You can always contact us with questions about our use of your personal information using the details on our website contact page.

This statement sets out the basis on which we collect any personal data from you, why we collect it, who we share it with, how we use it and how we protect it. We want you to understand clearly our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it, so please read the following carefully.

What Information We Collect

We may collect and process the following information about you:

- Information that you provide by filling in forms on our site or in online surveys conducted by us (note: survey data is anonymised). This includes information when enquiring about our services, posting material or requesting further services.
- If you contact us, we may keep a record of that correspondence.
- Details of your visits to our site, social media platforms, including, but not limited to, traffic data, location data, weblogs and other communication data, and the resources that you access.
- When we collect personal data directly from you through our website or online surveys, on social media platforms, on landing pages and over the telephone, we use the data you provide for the following purposes:
 - where we are under a contractual or legal obligation to do so.
 - where you have explicitly consented (for example, by actively signing up to receive further information from us), and for our own legitimate interests in maintaining our own records and databases.

How we collect, use and store personal data

The data we collect in this way may include the following:

- Name and contact data, including first and last name, email address and similar contact data.

We use this personal data for the following purposes:

- Subject to your consent to receive this information, informing users about our activities.
- To provide you with information that you request from us or which we feel may interest you.

If you do not want us to use your data in this way, please contact us to request no further information be sent to you.

Transferring personal data in or outside the UK

We will not transfer personal data to any other organisation in the UK or elsewhere.
